

Alphabet Soup

I made these pages for my kiddos, but many of you wanted to do them with your child(ren) as well!

Each letter is used exactly once. In some cases, there are a couple of letters that can be switched around.

A few things you may want to know:

- The Disney page is easy if you are familiar with the characters!
- Two of the pages are duplicates, with one small change for my overseas folks (color vs. colour, mommy vs. mummy)
- The page starting with "rain__ow" is quite tricky.
- The page starting with "s__id" is probably the easiest.
